

MEXICO WAR IS NOT WANTED BY UNITED STATES

"Would be a Calamity," Says Former Vice Pres. Fairbanks—Claims War With Spain Was Not Necessary.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Aug. 15.—"To sacrifice the life of one soldier for all the dollars invested and speculators have ventured in Mexico would be the supremest folly," former Vice Pres. Fairbanks Thursday night said in addressing the mid-summer meeting of the Indiana Republican Editorial association, upon the present situation in Mexico. "If our speculators in Mexico suffer pecuniary loss as the result of recurring revolutions, that is a matter for future consideration," he continued, "when a stable government and peace are fully established in that country. It is not warrant for shedding the blood of Americans."

Pres. Wilson is doing all that is possible to handle the situation without resorting to force, Mr. Fairbanks said, and former Pres. Taft dealt admirably with the question. "And I believe," the speaker added, "that Ambassador Wilson carried himself with poise and good judgment. It seems to me that the Mexican situation is one that need by no manner of means cause serious alarm. The duty of the United States is a plain one. Pres. Wilson is dealing with it the best he can and we should endeavor to uphold his hands. By doing so we shall make his task a comparatively easy one. It is not an hour for either little politics or sensational journalism. The clamor of the jingoes should not be allowed to drown the voice of rational, deliberate statesmanship."

Would Be a Calamity.
"The conditions attending intervention under all circumstances would be a calamity which every American in the best interests of his own country might regard with grave concern."

In opening his address Mr. Fairbanks referred to the unrest prior to the Spanish-American war and declared much of the demand for war was brought about by persons who wished to profit through government contracts or the exploitation of the natural resources of Cuba.

"It is perfectly obvious that much of the agitation which led to the war with Spain and ultimately imposed upon us the responsibility of governing ten millions of people, and which caused the government to spend hundreds of millions of dollars, was due to the most selfish and sinister character."

Mr. Fairbanks declared, "Men who wanted to fatten on government contracts or who were eager for military distinction or who wanted Cuba annexed to exploit her railroads, sugar, and tobacco plantations and other resources of wealth were eager for war. The yellow press played its selfish and nefarious part. It was with no considerations of either patriotism or national honor."

"I have no doubt that the disturbances in Mexico during the last few years have been due, in a greater or less degree, to the effort upon the part of ambitious, cunning men to force intervention and possibly annexation to the United States. Intervention in Mexico means war; war means the destruction of human lives and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars. It means, furthermore, the responsibility of the government of 20 millions of people for an indefinite period. We are now engaged in governing 10 millions of aliens as the result of the Spanish-American war—a war which could very probably have been averted if we had exercised a little more patience, patriotism and self restraint."

CAN HEAR TWO BAND CONCERTS

Kryl Program at Chautauqua Will Be Held Till Elbel Concert Is Finished.

Saturday evening's concert by Elbel's band at the court house square will be started at 7:15 sharp, and its program rushed through, so that the public may hear two band concerts during the evening, as the concert by Prof. Kryl's band at the Chautauqua will be held up until the conclusion of the city concert. This conclusion was arrived at after a conference between the managers of the two bands. Arthur Fordham will be the soloist at the evening, playing "Flocktonian Polka," a very pretty number. As a special feature a violin duet will be staged by Prof. F. H. Ingersoll and Miss Bessie Arber of Valparaiso.

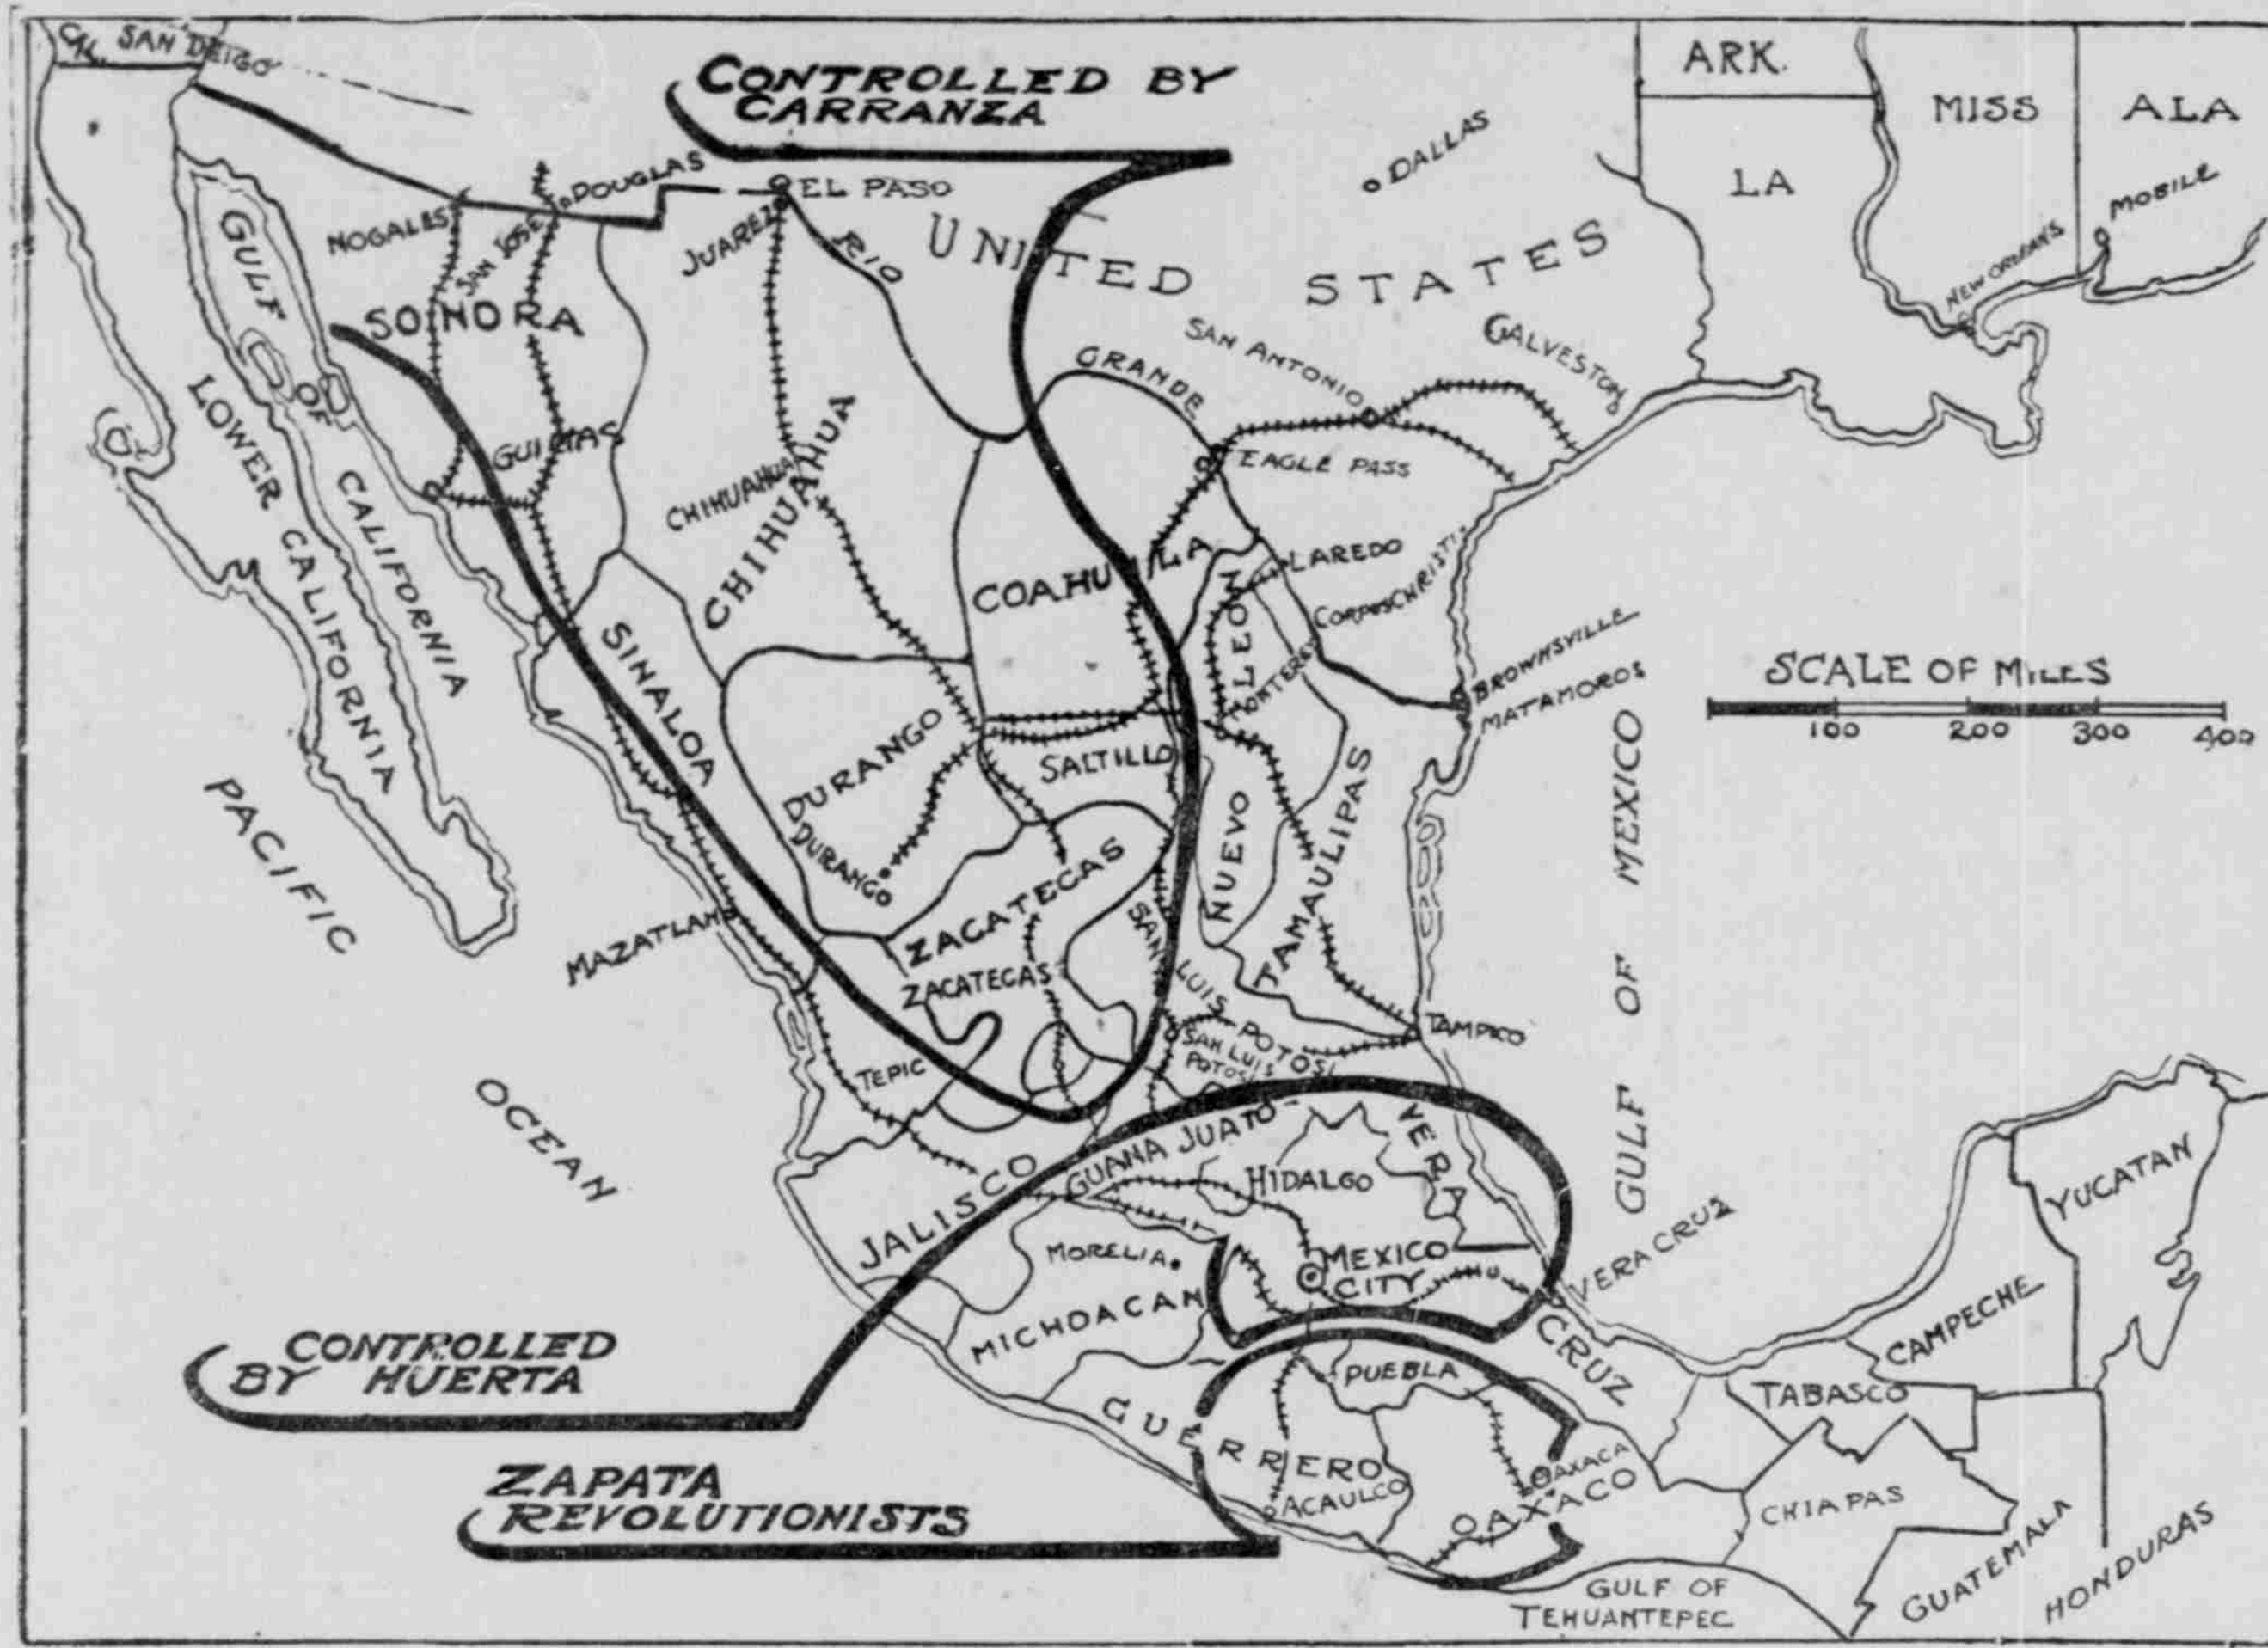

Prof. Ingersoll is known as one of the best violin performers in Indiana in this part of the country and some of his pupils are doing well in the musical world. Edward Lange one of his former pupils, played for several years with the Pittsburgh symphony orchestra, until that organization's dissolution, and still resides in Pittsburgh, where he conducts a fine studio. Miss Arber is one of the most advanced pupils although but 14 years of age.

With the exception of the two feature numbers the entire program is of a strictly popular nature, including selections from the popular musical comedy, "The Spring Maid," and the sextette from "Lucia de Lammermoor." The complete program is as follows:

"Mystic Call".....King
"A Night in Berlin".....Hartman
Waltz, "Beautiful Blue Danube".....Hartman
Selection, "The Spring Maid".....Strauss
Jornet solo, "Flocktonian Polka".....Reinhart
Arthur Fordham, Casey
Operatic, "The Little Movement".....Arber
"Madame Butterfly".....Hoshna
Violin duet, "Schlesische Lieder".....Bliss
Prof. F. Ingersoll and Miss Bessie Arber, "From Lucia de Lammermoor".....Donnizetti
Characteristic, "Glow Worm".....Linke
Finale, "On the Trail of the Lone-some Pine".....Gus Elbel, Conductor.

War Map of Mexico as Situation Is Today

The above war map of Mexico shows on its face the part of the country controlled by Pres. Huerta and the parts controlled by the Nationalists. In the long oval given to Gen. Carranza, however, federal troops hold some ground, notably the cities of Juarez and Chihuahua.

The map is widened to show the relative position of Mexico with the southern part of the United States. The map also contains the names of the numerous states with the boundaries of each clearly marked.

The Constitutionalists, who are all the rebels acknowledging Gen. Carranza as their leader, claim to have 60,000 to 80,000 men in the field. They are not all armed with up-to-date rifles and they have little effective artillery. If Huerta drives the United States to raise the bars against permitting munitions of war to cross the border, Carranza says he will then adequately arm his men and quickly drive Huerta out of Mexico.

Carranza says his soldiers rule in the following states:

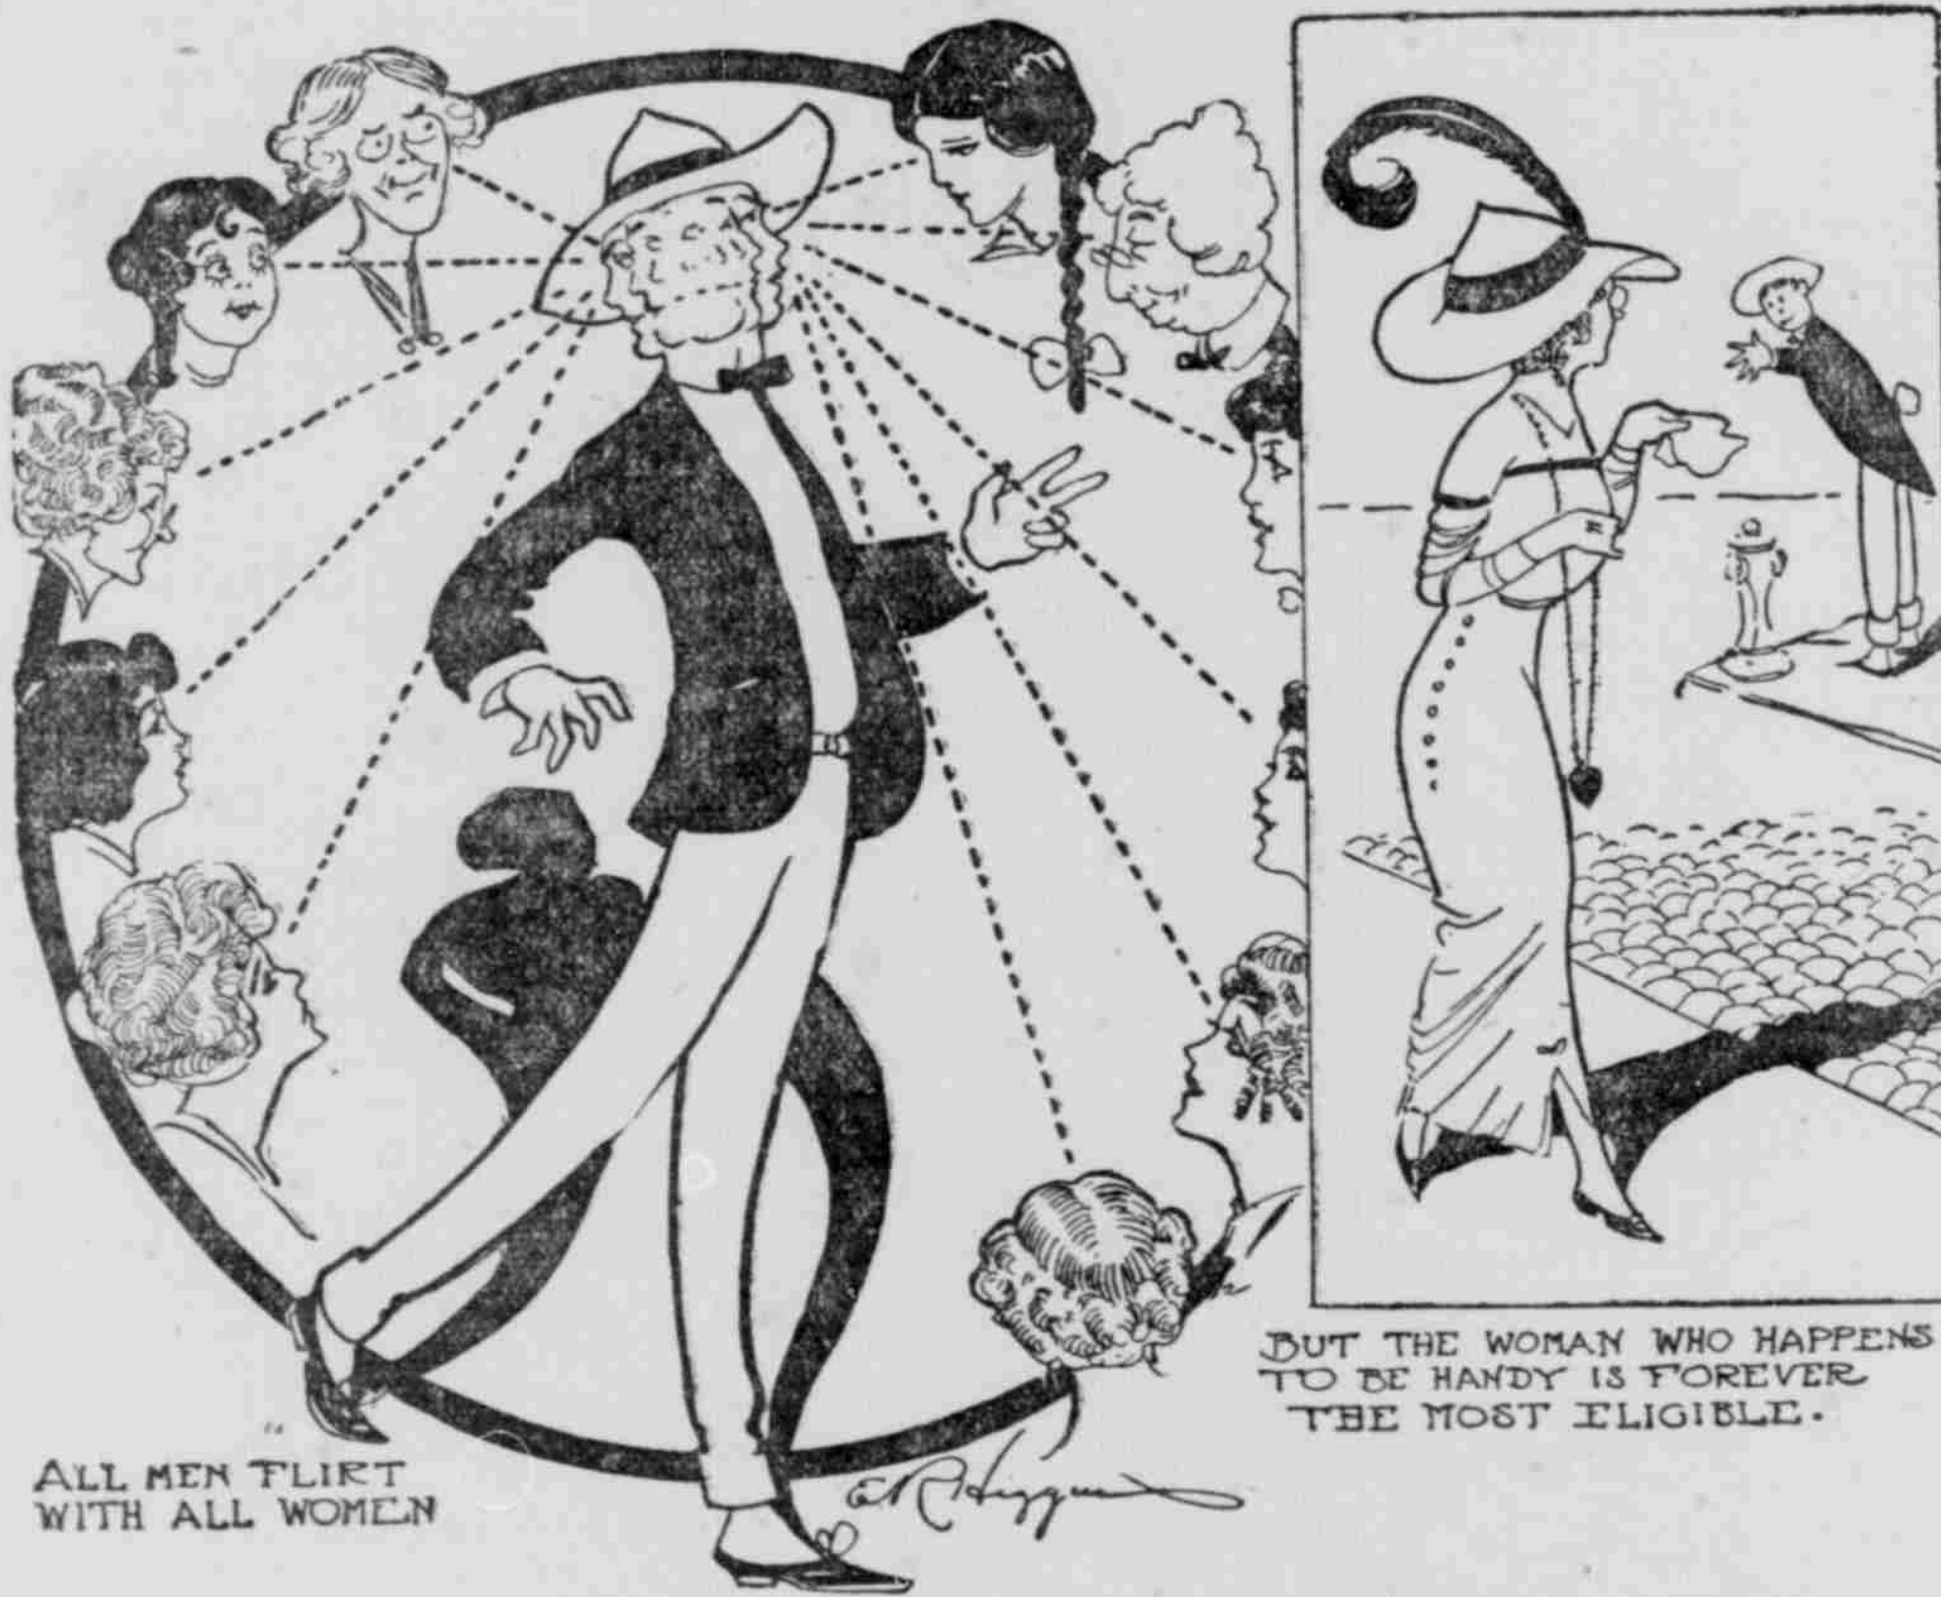

Chihuahua, except Juarez and Chihuahua city; Sonora, except Guaymas; Coahuila, except Saltillo and Monclova; Nuevo Leon, except Monterrey and Lampasas; Tamaulipas, except Laredo, Tampico and Victoria; Sinaloa, except Culiacan and Mazatlan; Zacatecas, except Zacatecas city; San Luis Potosi, except part of the railroad to Tampico; Durango. In the Constitutional territory Gen. Urbina and Gen. Villa are operating in Durango and Chihuahua, and numerous bands of brigands roam the country and carry off whatever property they can move.

To Huerta the Constitutionalists concede only the states of Mexico, Hidalgo, Queretaro, and Puebla, and the railroad from Vera Cruz to Mexico City.

The Zapata rebels have their camp in the mountains at Cuernavaca, only fifty miles south of Mexico City, and are in such control that Zapata is said to have vetoed Huerta's permission for a Japanese colony in that region.

Summer Romance---And the Man Flirt

The Stronger Sex Flirts, Not From Disloyalty, But Merely Because It is Changeable By Nature!—By Winnie Lee.

ALL MEN FLIRT WITH ALL WOMEN

The man flirt is a special type, so women fancy, and yet—all men flirt. And man, when he flirts, is not half so discriminating as he likes woman to think. And he is just about twice as adaptable as he wants her to believe.

All men flirt with all women, but the woman who happens to be handy is forever the most eligible! Many a man actually resents the existence of the woman, old or young, married or single, pretty or plain, who can't see him as the really important feature of her environment. Even Grandmother must look upon him as the cleverest youth ever.

Of course the man doesn't always talk about his conquests because he isn't proud of all of them. "Pride" makes the distinction between "love" and "flirtation" in the mind of man. That is why he often honestly believes that he can flirt with his stenographer and still love his wife. Man is always so "proud" of the women he loves enough to give her his name. Proud of the effort it has cost to win her. And of the energy it costs to keep her. But his easy conquests he values for their numbers and not for their quality.

This makes him mighty cynical of love at first sight. But it does not keep him from experimenting with it in all his spare time. And this lack of good taste, of absence of any taste at all, makes him responsible for his chiefest sin against the dictionary. Man has "made love" the most abused word in the language. He uses it so often to describe the feeling of a moment that he has nothing better left when he needs to express the one great emotion of all his life. Man takes his flirting just as inconsequently as he takes his speech. And this carelessness is very properly rewarded. It makes most of his troubles in life!

Women can never understand it. They dress for flirtation, plan it, dream about it, tell about it. And then they cry about it when they discover what they call "man's peridy!"

As if man were ever disloyal from choice!

He's merely changeable by nature! He holds his many loves as lightly as the smoke of his cigar. He never confuses them with his one love, even though his speech does stumble.

But woman is forever getting the two mixed up. Consequently her tears and recriminations force man to become an awful hypocrite. If she would classify man's emotions as carefully as she does him, she would discover that his flirting is his tribute to the sex more often than to the woman. It is not often chivalry, to be sure; nor is it always sensuousness.

Ordinary flirting is merely a careless recognition of woman as woman and it arouses neither deference nor desire!

NILES.

John Hodgson, a Howard township farmer, fell from a ladder at the L. E. Mather farm Thursday where he was threshing oats and dislocated his shoulder.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lambert are parents of a daughter, Dr. Z. W. Van Noppen visited his son, Lenius, who is at the Boys' camp at Lake Winona, Ind., Thursday.

Miss Elsie Viola Johnson, daughter of Jefferson Johnson, was married Thursday afternoon to Samuel Johnson of Niles at the office of Justice Hillman who performed the ceremony. After a wedding trip they will come to Niles to reside. The bride is a well known hair dresser.

Mrs. Frank Bracelin of Fargo, N. D., is a guest of her mother, Mrs. Ella Hildebrand. Mr. and Mrs. Tracy Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Clark of Elkhart were among those from out of the city who attended the funeral of the late Mrs. Martin Wilson here Thursday. They are relatives of the family. Mrs. A. L. Lott, sr., left Thursday for Omaha, Neb., after a visit with her son, A. L. Lott and family.

But it is his happy-go-lucky, just-in-passing, don't-mean-a-thing flirting which queers man very often where he wants to be most esteemed.

The shut-in woman, the cloistered type, those who live in homes or follow professions largely man's man; the protected wife, the jealous betrothed, the exacting sister get a most unwholesome and false notion of man, the flirt.

He is not half so vicious as the uninformed feminine imagination paints him!

He is merely vain! And it ought to comfort the critical, and banish much of their distrust, to know that the woman who works with him never takes seriously that man never means seriously. She knows that he's most harmless when he's flirting!

Miss Gladys Taylor left Thursday for Zion City, Ill., after a visit with Niles friends.

MANY WOMEN FEEL THAT WAY

Tired All the Time—To Those the United Doctors Hold Out Hope of Relief—They Get No Sympathy—Scientific Medical Treatment Cures Many Who Would Be Butchered by Surgeons.

No doubt a great per cent of our lady readers would tell about the same story if they were to speak freely in regard to their health. Tired out, nerves worn to a shred, no health or strength. Not really sick enough to be in bed, but entirely too sick to attend to their ordinary, every day duties with any satisfaction, and too sick to take any pleasure in life. Such women do not get any sympathy from the ordinary person, for often they look the proverbial picture of health, and should they say anything about their aches and pains they are laughed at and told: "You are not sick, you just imagine it." And thus they drag out their weary lives, hoping against hope that some of these days they may find a real specialist who can understand their case and cure them.

Such women will enjoy reading the following letter from Mrs. Nora Morgan:

To the Public:
When I first began treatment with the United Doctors I was a physical wreck, having suffered with kidney trouble for months; could not sleep at night, and my suffering was so great that I felt as though if I did not get relief that I could not live. After treatment with other physicians for months as well as the family physician, I could not get any relief and continued to suffer the agonies of pain and extreme nervousness.

After treatment with the United Doctors for a short time I was relieved of all bad symptoms, and felt for once again in my life like a well woman after months of suffering.

I live at 24 S. R. St., Hamilton, and can recommend these doctors.

MRS. NORA MORGAN.
The above letter is a fair sample of the hundreds of testimonials that are pouring into the United Doctors' institutes daily from all over the country.

Any one afflicted with chronic or nervous disease cannot do better than to go to these master specialists.

Their South Bend Institute is located on the second floor of the Teapp Building on S. Main St., opposite the Post Office, and is always crowded with patients, as people come hundreds of miles to be cured by these specialists.

The examination is free and confidential, and it is a well known fact that if they cannot cure a patient they will tell him so at once and refuse to take his money, or to treat him under any condition.
